HOW IS YOUR COMPENSATION CALCULATED IN THE EVENT OF A CONTESTED SETTLEMENT?

If the compensation cannot be determined by private agreement, it is assessed through an out-of-court appraisal, subject to our respective rights being reserved.

Each of us chooses an appraiser. If the appraisers do not agree with each other, they call upon the services of a third appraiser, and all three of them operate jointly and by majority vote.

Should one of us fail to appoint an appraiser or should the two appraisers not agree on the choice of a third appraiser, the appointment is made by the Presiding Judge of the Regional Court (Tribunal de Grande Instance), ruling in summary proceedings. Each of the co-contracting parties bears the cost of the fees of its appraiser, and, where applicable, half of the fees of the third appraiser.

WITHIN WHAT TIME LIMIT WILL YOU RECEIVE THE COMPENSATION?

The payment will be made within a time limit of fifteen days as of the agreement that is made between us, or as of the notification of the enforceable court decision.

| TAKING OF EFFECT | EXPIRY OF THE COVER |
|---|--|
| Cancellation: The day of subscription to the present contract | Cancellation: The day of the departure – place where the group is told to report (for the outward journey) |

WHAT DO WE COVER?

We reimburse the down payments or all of the sums that are kept by the travel or trip organiser invoiced pursuant to the general sales conditions of that organiser (to the exclusion of the file processing costs, visa expenses, insurance premium, and all taxes and duties), when you are obliged to cancel your trip before you leave (on the outward journey).

UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES DO WE INTERVENE?

You enjoy cover in all of cases of cancellation, if your departure is prevented by an uncertain event or contingency that can be evidenced.

"Uncertain event" or "contingency" means any circumstance that is not caused intentionally by you or by a member of your family, that is not excluded under the present contract, that is unforeseeable on the day of the subscription, and that stems from the sudden action of an external cause.

Cancellation of any one of the people accompanying you (maximum of 8 people) enrolled at the same time as you and insured through this same contract, when the cancellation originates from one of the covered causes.

If the person wishes to travel alone, additional expenses are taken into account, without it being possible for our reimbursement to exceed the amount owed in the event of cancellation on the date of the event.

WHAT WE EXCLUDE

In addition to the exclusions appearing in the section "WHAT ARE THE GENERAL EXCLUSIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL OF OUR COVER PACKAGES", we cannot intervene if the cancellation results from:

- Diseases or accidents that are established for the first time, or that are the subject of relapse or worsening, or of hospitalisation between the date of purchase of your trip or travel and the date of subscription to the insurance contract;
- Any medical event whose diagnosis, or whose symptoms or the causes thereof are of a mental, psychological or psychiatric nature, and that has not resulted in hospitalisation for longer than 3 consecutive days.
- Defaulting of any kind, including financial, by the organiser of your trip, or by the carrier, rendering it impossible for it to honour its contractual obligations.
- The mere fact that the destination of your trip or travel is advised against by the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs;
- Any event for which liability might fall to the travel agent or tour operator pursuant to French Law 92-645 of 13 July 1992.
- Any event occurring between the date of booking of your trip and the date of taking out the present contract.

FOR WHAT AMOUNT DO WE INTERVENE?

We intervene for the amount of the cancellation expenses invoiced at the date of the event that can lead to application of the cover, pursuant to the General Sales Conditions of the travel organiser, with a maximum and an excess as indicated in the table of the amounts of cover.

The insurance premium is never reimbursable.

WITHIN WHAT TIME LIMIT SHOULD YOU DECLARE THE LOSS?

1. Medical reasons: you should declare your loss as soon as a competent medical authority establishes that the seriousness of your state of health would contraindicate your trip.

If your cancellation is subsequent to such a contraindication to travel, our reimbursement will be limited to the cancellation expenses applicable at the date of the contraindication (calculated on the basis of the travel organiser's scale with which you acquainted yourself on enrolling on the trip).

POLICY BOOKLET FOR OUTDOOR ACCOMODATION

For any other reason for cancellation: you should declare your loss as soon as you become aware of the event that might lead to application of the cover. If your travel cancellation is subsequent to that date, our reimbursement will be limited to the cancellation expenses applicable at the date of the event (calculated on the basis of the travel organiser's scale with which you acquainted yourself on enrolling on the trip).

- In addition, if the claimable loss has not been declared to us directly by the travel agent or by the organiser, you should inform us within five business days following the event leading to application of the cover. For that purpose, you should send us the declaration of loss (claim form) enclosed with the insurance contract that has been given to you.

WHAT ARE YOUR OBLIGATIONS IN THE EVENT OF A CLAIMABLE LOSS?

Your declaration of loss (claim) should be accompanied by the following documents:

- in the event of sickness or accident, by a doctor's certificate and/or an administrative hospitalisation certificate specifying the origin, the nature, the seriousness, and the foreseeable consequences of the sickness or of the accident;

- in other cases, by any documentary evidence.

You should let us have the medical details and documents necessary for your claim file to be examined, using the envelope pre-printed with the name and address of the medical examiner that we will send you as soon as we receive the declaration of loss.

If you do not have such documents or details, you should procure them from your doctor and send them to us using the above-mentioned pre-printed envelope. You should discharge your doctor of their medical secrecy obligation. The same applies for the doctor of the person lying behind the cancellation, on pain of forfeiture of your rights to compensation.

You should also, by using an envelope pre-printed with the name and address of the medical examiner, pass on to us any details or documents that might be requested of you in order to justify the reasons for your cancellation, and in particular:

- all of the photocopies of the prescriptions prescribing medicines, analyses, or examinations, and any documents evidencing dispensing of such medicines or performance of such analyses or examinations, and in particular the state health insurance fund reimbursement forms bearing copies of the corresponding stickers for the prescribed medicines.
